

Rabindranath Tagore International Institute of Cardiac Sciences, brainchild of Padma Bhushan Dr. Devi Shetty, Chairman, a 681 bed multi specialty teaching hospital accredited by the most prestigious National Accreditation Board for Hospitals (NABH), is the largest cardiac hospital in eastern India. The Institute houses the largest Nephrology Unit in this part of the country. The hospital is noted for good academic and clinical infrastructure, bearing the credit of conducting various courses for the last fifteen years – PG Medical under the National Board of Examinations, New Delhi, Indian College of Anaesthesiologists, College of Critical Care Medicine-Mumbai, Society for Emergency Medicine, India(SEMI), Degree & P G Diploma Courses under State Medical Faculty of West Bengal & Netaji Subhas Open University, and nursing courses under West Bengal University of Health Sciences, West Bengal Nursing Council and Indian Nursing Council.

The hospital houses one of the largest dialysis centres in eastern India running on a 24x7 basis.

The Medical Laboratory of the Institute is accredited by the National Accreditation Board for Laboratories (NABL) and is equipped with state-of-the-art infrastructural facilities.

The Radiography unit of the hospital offers facilities of CT scan, MRIs, Ultrasonography and X-rays through state-of-the-art machinery.

These facilities and the large number of Out Patients and In-patient cases handled on a daily basis offer very good practical as well as theoretical exposure to the students to most modern medical gadgetry and their handling, to enable them to understand the operations and to carry out the intricate techniques involved.
